

THE PARTIES HEREBY AGREE AS FOLLOWS:

Art. 1 Acceptance

The student _____ enrolled in the Degree Course in _____ for the A.Y. 2021/2022 subscribes to the services provided by the University and accepts them in the form in which they are provided.

Art. 2 Services

The enrollment in the University for the Academic Year 2021/2022 and the regular payment of the amounts due are the conditions required for the student to benefit of the related rights and services of the University for that Academic Year.

More specifically, the University undertakes to grant for all students:

- classrooms and teaching staff;
- access to areas dedicated to study;
- secretarial and mentoring services;
- access to labs, equipment and facilities for the clinical practice, within and outside the Lazio region, according to terms and timing set by the University.

Art. 3 Student's obligations

The student undertakes to actively take part in the activities promoted by the University, participating in all training activities related to the Course of studies - in compliance with the current laws or laws enacted as a result of emergency situations (e.g. Covid-19) -, including those required to fill any educational debts following the admission test (Additional Education Requirements, OFA, regulated by the Didactic Regulations of each Degree Course, and by the University Regulations) and the clinical practice provided for each course at the facilities indicated by the University. The student undertakes to fully respect the provisions of the Code of Ethics, the University Didactic Regulation, the Tuition Fees and Contributions Regulation, and of the other Regulations and Programme Regulations for the achievement of the student's educational and professional objectives in the context of the curriculum chosen. The student recognizes and accepts that - if s/he gives the consent in the attached privacy policy - her/his name and photo will be published in the graduate yearbook of the University.

Art. 4 University contributions

University contribution is regulated by the Tuition Fees and Contributions Regulation for the A.Y. 2021/2022, published on the UniCamillus website and approved by the Organizational Committee of October 21st, 2020.

Art. 5 Exams and compulsory attendance

The exams and the compulsory attendance are regulated as provided for by the University Regulations and by the Didactic Regulations of each degree course.

Art. 6 Duration of the Contract and Right of Withdrawal

The duration of this contract is equal to the official duration of the Degree Course or of the residual legal years in case of application/enrollment to years following the first (1st), due to a transfer and/or recognition of the knowledge and/or professional skills according to art. 5, comma 7 of the Decree 22/10/2004 n. 270. In case the student repeats a year or is in his supplementary year, the contract will be tacitly and annually renewed for each additional Academic Year compared to the official duration of that Degree Course.

If this Contract is concluded remotely or outside University's grounds, within 14 (fourteen) days by the day of conclusion of this Contract (if the date is missing or is incorrect, the day of payment shall prevail), the student may exercise their right of withdrawal and unilaterally terminate the Contract communicating clearly to UniCamillus their will to terminate, through a registered letter with notice of return (Raccomandata A/R). If the student exercises this right of withdrawal, UniCamillus will reimburse to the student costs incurred for the enrolment within the following 14 days, by charging an amount proportional to the activities done to the date of withdrawal (including costs and administrative fees and of enrolment incurred by the University), using the same payment methods used by the student for the initial payment, unless expressly indication a different payment method.

Art. 7 Transfer, Abandonment or Withdrawal from Studies

The Abandonment, the Transfer and/or the Withdrawal from Studies are regulated in terms and conditions as provided for by the Tuition Fees and Contributions Regulations of reference, by the Didactic Regulations of each study course, and by the Calls for Application for the Admission to which the student participated.

Exercising the right of abandonment, withdrawal, and/or outgoing transfer, the Student is not obliged to pay the following annual fees with respect to those already benefitted, and s/he will not have access to any didactic activity and/or title to use the tools provided of the same by UniCamillus.

In case of study withdrawal or outgoing transfer there will be no reimbursement to the Student, in any case, of the amounts already paid until the date of the submission of the withdrawal or transfer request. The Student who presents a study withdrawal or abandons her/his studies is required regardless to pay in full the amounts provided for by the Tuition Fees and Contributions Regulation relating to the Academic Year to which the student is enrolled.

Art. 8 Ethical Code and Organizational Model ex D. Lgs. 231/2001

Given that UniCamillus adopted the Ethical Code and, pursuant to the principles and guidelines provided for by the legislative decree 231/2001, the Organizational Management and Control Model ex D. Lgs. 231 (from now on "Organizational Model 231") published on the website www.unicamillus.org, the student explicitly declares to acknowledge the Ethical Code and the Organizational Model 231 adopted by the University UniCamillus, and commits to behave in accordance with the principles contained therein and in accordance with the legal provisions, and also to inform of all possible violations of the Ethical Code of the Organizational Model of which they should become aware, as well as related protocols and procedures, to the Supervisory Board of the University UniCamillus, to the e-mail address odv@unicamillus.org, or directly to the physical address of the Supervisory Body.

Moreover, the student acknowledges that in the case of non-observance of the abovementioned commitments in this declaration, UniCamillus may proceed with the resolution of the contract in accordance with and by art. 1456 c.c. notwithstanding the right to compensation for damages caused.

Art. 9 Communications with the University

Communications between the University and students via e-mail is regulated by the Electronic Mail Regulation and by the University Regulations published on the UniCamillus website.

Art. 10 Competent Court and ascribable discipline

All disputes that may arise in order of validity, interpretation, execution or resolution of the Contract, the only competent Court is the one of Rome.

Given the nature of the University, to this Contract with the Student is not enforceable nor in any way ascribable the discipline contained in the legislative decree 206/06 and subsequent amendments and modifications.
