Article 1 - Available seats and access requirements

A call for applications is open by the Saint Camillus International University of Health Sciences, (hereinafter referred to as "UniCamillus" or the "University"), for the academic year 2023/2024, for access to the first year of the BSc programmes in the Health Professions, pursuant to Art. 6 co.1, lett. a of Ministerial Decree 50/2010.

For non-EU candidates living abroad, the following seats are available:

- a) 60 seats for BSc Physiotherapy taught in English
- b) 60 seats for BSc Midwifery taught in Italian
- c) 70 seats for BSc Nursing taught in English
- d) 60 seats for BSc Biomedical Laboratory Techniques taught in Italian
- e) 65 seats for BSc Radiology, Diagnostic Imaging and Radiotherapy Techniques taught in English.

The number of available seats may change because of what will be established through the Ministry for Universities and Research (MUR) Decree, in accordance with Law no. 264 of 2 August 1999. The MUR Decree may establish the validation, increase, or decrease of the seats specified in this announcement. The University will make the Ministerial Decree available on its website.

Citizens from Norway, Iceland, Liechtenstein, the Swiss Confederation, the Republic of San Marino, and the Holy See are treated in the same way as EU candidates. Similar equivalence applies to the categories that - pursuant to the provisions of Article 26 of Law no. 189 of 30 July 2002, as amended and supplemented - access the Courses on equal terms with Italian students.

Candidates wishing to take part in the admission test for the three-year degree courses in the Health Professions must meet one of the following requirements:

- a) secondary school diploma giving access to university, issued by a state or equal education institution of the Italian school system in Italy or abroad;
- b) a final higher education qualification issued by an institution belonging to a foreign school system, located in Italy or abroad, achieved after at least 12 years of schooling;
- c) a final higher education qualification issued by a school system including 10 or 11 years of schooling, supplemented by one or two years of university, provided that all the examinations envisaged for those academic years have been passed.

Candidates registered in their last year of secondary school at state or private schools of the Italian school system or at a foreign higher education institution that allows them to obtain a qualification valid for admission to higher education courses of the Italian system may also submit an application, provided that they achieve the qualification by the deadline for enrolment for the 2023/2024 academic year, under penalty of the result of the admission test being unusable.

Students already holding an academic qualification (achieved in Italy or abroad) and those coming from another degree course are required to comply with the same procedures indicated in this announcement and take the relevant admission test.

For candidates who have obtained or are enrolled in the final year required to obtain, a secondary school degree relating to a foreign system, foreign degrees are considered valid provided they are accompanied by a Declaration of Value issued by the Italian diplomatic representations.

Candidates who do not possess or do not submit, within the deadlines indicated below, a suitable qualification, in accordance with the regulations in force, lose the benefit of enrolment or forfeit the right to enrolment if already admitted, and are not entitled to a refund of any amount paid to the University for any reason.

With reference to the recognition of foreign qualifications, the University shall take into account the indications provided by the MUR "Procedures for entry, accommodation and enrolment of foreign/international students in higher education courses in Italy for the academic year 2022-2023" and subsequent amendments (<http://www.studiare-in-italia.it/studentistranieri>).

Article 2 – Application submission

For admission to the three-year degree programmes in the Health Professions, candidates must take a test. Registration for the admission test will be possible from 21 February 2023 until 13:00 on 7 June 2023.

To complete registration for the admission test, each candidate must first register on the website <https://unicamillus-admission.ilmiotest.it/> as a non-EU student and follow the instructions therein.

The candidate will be asked at this stage to choose the Degree Course for which he/she wishes to apply. The candidate is entitled, in addition to the one selected as his/her first choice, to indicate in order of preference one or more alternative courses - even all five degree courses - for which he/she intends to apply in the event that he/she is unable to enter the list of candidates admitted for the degree course he/she first indicated.

Alternatively, when submitting an application form, the candidate may choose only one degree course for which he/she wishes to take part in the admission test by answering "no second choice", "no third choice" and so on in the spaces provided in the application form.

The registration fee for the admission test, amounting to € 50.00 (fifty/00) must be paid by 7 June 2023 by 1:00 p.m. directly to UniCamillus via Paypal. The amount paid will not be refunded under any circumstances.

The candidate is responsible for the information given in the application form. Any false, incorrect, or omitted information will lead to immediate exclusion from the test or, if already passed, removal from the list of those admitted.

By submitting an application form, the candidate authorises UniCamillus to carry out checks with the bodies and authorities that have issued or validated the declared qualifications.

In the event of difficulties in the registration procedure, candidates can send an e-mail to relations@unicamillus.org for assistance.

Article 3 - Admission test

The admission test for the three-year degree programmes in the Health Professions is divided into two parts (written test and oral test).

The written test, entirely in English, must be taken from 29 May 2023 until 13 June 2023; the oral test must be taken from 5 June 2023 until 22 June 2023.

➤ Written test

The written test is the computer-based 'Internet Reasoning Test - 3' (hereinafter referred to as 'IRT-3').

The test consists of three separate sections to be passed within a set time and each consisting of a series of multiple-choice questions, the assessment of which is carried out as outlined below.

Sections	No. of questions	Points (min-max)
Verbal Reasoning (IRT3V) Measures basic vocabulary, verbal fluency, and the ability to reason with vocabulary.	17	0-17
Numerical Reasoning (IRT3N) Measures the ability to use numbers logically and efficiently	17	0-17
Abstract Reasoning (IRT3A) Measures the ability to understand abstract logical problems and to use new information outside the field of previous experience.	17	0-17
Total	51	0-51

The overall assessment of the written test is obtained by summing the scores of the 'Verbal Reasoning', 'Numerical Reasoning', and 'Abstract Reasoning' sections for a maximum score of 51 points.

➤ Oral test

The oral test - which will be conducted electronically - will test the candidate's knowledge of the following topics: general culture, notions of biology, chemistry, physics, and mathematics.

The overall assessment of the oral test ranges from a minimum of 0 to a maximum of 69 points.

The final mark for each candidate is the result of the sum of the points obtained in the written test and the marks obtained in the oral test, up to a maximum of 120 points.

Article 4 - Final ranking list for admission

UniCamillus shall draw up a final ranking list on the basis of the score obtained in the written test and the oral test.

The final ranking list, in which candidates' anonymity is guaranteed, shall be made available by 28 June 2023.

In the event of a tie, the candidate with the highest score in the oral test shall prevail. In the event of a further tie, the candidate with the youngest age prevails.

The ranking will be formulated based on the overall marks obtained by the candidates and observing the following criteria:

1. if the candidate is admitted to the Degree Course indicated as the first option, the remaining options are cancelled;
2. if the candidate is admitted to the Degree Course indicated as the second option, the third and subsequent options are cancelled;
3. if the candidate is admitted to the Degree Course indicated as the third option, the fourth and fifth options are cancelled
4. if the candidate is admitted to the Degree Course indicated as the fourth option, the fifth option is cancelled.

Article 5 - Degree Course Allocation

If the candidate is not admitted to the degree course indicated as first choice, his/her ranking will be verified in the degree course indicated in order as second, third, fourth or fifth option.

In the event that there are no more seats available in the degree course indicated as the first option:

1. the candidate will be allocated, for enrolment purposes, to the Degree Course indicated as the second option;
2. if there are no seats available in the degree course indicated as the second option, he/she will be allocated, for enrolment purposes, to the degree course indicated as the third option
3. if there are no seats available in the degree course indicated as the third option, he/she will be allocated, for enrolment purposes, to the degree course indicated as the fourth option;
4. if there are no seats available in the degree course indicated as the fourth option, he/she will be allocated, for matriculation purposes, to the degree course indicated as the fifth option.

We therefore reiterate the importance of indicating only interested degree courses when registering for the admission test.

Candidates who have not been placed in the ranking list to be admitted to the Degree Course they have indicated as their first choice, when enrolling in one of the other Degree Courses to which they have been admitted, may request to be transferred to a different Degree Course among those indicated by them, including the one they have defined as their first choice, by submitting an application to be filled out on the appropriate form available on the website www.unicamillus.org or at the Registrars' Office. The request must be attached to the enrolment application to be presented only at the Registrars' Office. Should seats become available, this request will result in the candidate's transfer to the course for which he/she has applied. Transfers to degree courses other than those indicated in the application cannot be requested. Failure to apply for transfer by the deadline and in the manner indicated will result in a final enrolment in the degree course other than the first chosen.

Any candidate admitted to enrolment in a degree course of first, second, third, fourth or fifth choice who, for any reason, does not enrol according to the terms and procedures set out in this call for applications, will lose without any regard benefits coming from their position in the ranking for enrolment purposes.

The publication of the ranking list and all related notices on the university's website constitutes an official communication to the interested parties. Any personal communications sent to the email addresses entered in the system by candidates during the test registration phase will have the mere purpose of facilitating them in following the competition process but will in no way replace the notices published on the University website, the only official communication means. It therefore remains the candidate's responsibility to check his or her position on the site, taking the necessary steps to proceed with enrolment in accordance with the procedures and deadlines laid down.

Article 6 - Enrolment and scrolling procedure

Candidates who have accrued the right to enrol the first year of their course must, from 4 July 2023 and until 13:00 on 13 July 2023, complete the online enrolment process, which requires the University to obtain the following documentation:

Candidates who fail to meet the above deadlines will be considered as drop-outs and will lose their right to enrol.

Furthermore, by the beginning of the 2023/2024 academic year it is necessary to deliver to the Registrars' Office, under penalty of exclusion:

c) a copy of the entry visa for study purposes obtained in accordance with the law.

In the case of underage candidates, the registration procedure must be carried out by the person exercising parental authority.

- the "scrolling" procedure will be repeated until the available seats are filled.

The publication of all notices on the University's website has the value of an official communication to those concerned. Any personal communications sent to the email addresses entered into the system by candidates during the test registration phase will have the mere purpose of facilitating them in following the competition process but will in no way replace the notices published on the University website, which is the University's only official communication means. It therefore remains the candidate's responsibility to verify his/her position by taking the necessary steps to proceed with enrolment in the prescribed manner and within the prescribed deadlines.

If enrolment has been finalised remotely or outside the University premises, the student, within 14 (fourteen) days, starting from the date of making the envisaged payment, may exercise the rethinking right by clearly communicating to UniCamillus the wish to withdraw, by registered letter with advice of receipt. In the case of exercising a withdrawal right, UniCamillus will proceed to reimburse the student for the costs incurred for enrolment within the next 14 (fourteen) days - retaining for secretarial services and enrolment an amount equal to 5% of the amount paid - using the same means of payment used for the payment, unless a different means of payment is indicated.

Exercise of the right to reconsider is equivalent to the submission of the request to withdraw from studies referred to in Article 6 of this notice.

For any contact relating to the student's career, including administrative matters, from the moment the student reaches the age of majority, the University will deal exclusively with the latter, therefore communications, of whatever nature and purpose, coming from third parties, including parents, will not be taken into consideration, and will not be acknowledged.

To prepare for specific subjects considered fundamental for the degree course undertaken, candidates enrolled in accordance with the terms of this notice will be required to follow a training course aimed at providing useful notions about Chemistry, Biology and Physics. At the end of the course, the tutors in charge of these subjects will carry out an assessment aimed at verifying the knowledge acquired and the fulfilment of the requirements.

Any candidate who withdraws from the course or who, in any case, does not complete the enrolment procedure within the deadlines indicated in this announcement will be considered automatically forfeited and will not have the right to a refund.

No reimbursement of payments made will be made except in cases expressly regulated by law or provided for in this announcement.

Article 7 - Waivers, transfer, and abandonment procedures

Students who wish to renounce their studies must submit an "application to withdraw from studies" using the online procedure by accessing the student portal (Gomp) with their credentials, going to the "careers>applications>application to withdraw from studies" section.

Renunciation of studies is understood to be finalised with the issue of the relevant leave form. This form will only be issued to students who, at the time of submitting their application, are up to date with the payment of fees and contributions.

In the event of withdrawal or transfer, the amounts already paid up to the time of submission of the relative application will not be reimbursed by the University under any circumstances.

Outgoing transfer authorisation and issue of the relative documentation may only be granted to students who, on the date the application is submitted, are up to date with the payment of academic contributions, fees, and stamps.

Students who abandon their studies after the start of classes are in any case required to pay all the fees and contributions stipulated in the Fees and Contributions Regulations for the academic year in which they are enrolled, which can be easily consulted on the University website at <https://www.unicamillus.org/it/regolamenti/>.

Article 8 - Warnings

The University reserves the right, at any stage of the registration process, to verify the truthfulness of the declarations made by the candidate, in accordance with the regulations in force. The candidate must therefore provide all the necessary elements to allow the appropriate checks to be made. In the event that false or misleading declarations are found in the documentation submitted by the candidate, without prejudice to the sanctions provided for by the Criminal Code and the special laws on the subject and the exposure of the declarant to action for damage by the interested parties, the possible enrolment will be cancelled, any benefits granted will be recovered and any university fees and contributions paid will be withheld, which will not be refunded under any circumstances.

The publication on the University's website of the final ranking of candidates who have taken the test and of any shortlists shall constitute official notification for all legal purposes to those concerned.

The University reserves the right to change dates, times, locations of the entrance test and publication of results, location of internships both in the region and outside the region and course delivery modes should it be deemed useful for organisational reasons and/or health safety requirements, through the publication of notices on the University's website, which is the University's only official communication means.

In the event of a postponement, if it has been decided before the deadline for applications for the admission test, the University reserves the right to postpone the deadlines for submitting applications and, where deemed useful, to amend the other dates set out in this announcement accordingly, by giving notice on the University's website, which is the University's sole official communication means.

Participation in this call for applications implies full and unquestionable acceptance of the provisions contained therein, including the provisions contained in the Student Contract, which are attached to this call for applications and form an integral part of it.

For legal and interpretation purposes, only the announcement approved by Rector's Decree no. 40 of 16th February 2023, deposited and available at the Teaching services office and drafted in Italian is valid, a certified copy of which may be obtained on request.

For all matters not provided for in this call for applications, please refer to the Statute, the Course Regulations and the University's Fees and Contributions Regulations for the academic year 2023/2024, which can be easily consulted on the University's web portal at the following link <https://www.unicamillus.org/it/regolamenti/>.

Article 9 - Commission for regularity of call for applications procedures

A Commission will be appointed by specific provision to ensure the regularity and correctness of the procedures.

Vittorino Testa, Head of Student Services at UniCamillus, is in charge of overseeing the procedure.
